1 Corinthians 11-12

1 The Head of Every Man Is Christ

1 Corinthians 11:1–16

- Imitate me just as I also imitate Christ.
- I want you to know that the head of every man is Christ, the head of woman is man, and the head of Christ is God.
- Neither is man independent of woman, nor woman independent of man in the Lord.
- For as woman came from man, even so man also comes through women, but all things are from God.

2 The Lord's Supper: Do This in Remembrance of Me

1 Corinthians 11:17–34; 1 Corinthians 11:23–26

- When you come together as a church, I hear that there are divisions among you.
- The Lord Jesus on the same night in which he was betrayed took bread and said, Take eat, this is my body which is broken for you. Do this in remembrance of me.
- This cup is the new covenant in my blood.
- For as often as you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the Lord's death till he comes.
- Let a man examine himself and so let him eat of the bread and drink of the cup.
- When you come together to eat, wait for one another.

3 Diversities of Gifts, but the Same Spirit

1 Corinthians 12:1–11

- No one can say that Jesus is Lord except by the Holy Spirit.
- There are diversities of gifts, but the same spirit. There are differences of ministries, but the same Lord.
- The manifestation of the Spirit is given to each one for the profit of all.
- One and the same spirit works all these things, distributing to each one individually as he wills.

4 Many Members Yet One Body

1 Corinthians 12:12–31; 1 Corinthians 12:26

- For by one spirit we were all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, whether slaves or free.
- God has set the members, each one of them in the body just as he pleased.
- That there should be no schism in the body, but that the members should have the same care for one another.
- If one member suffers, all the members suffer with it, or if one member is honored, all the members rejoice with it.
- Now you are the body of Christ and members individually.

- Earnestly desire the best gifts, and yet I show you a more excellent way.
