1 Corinthians 9-10

Ken Chapman · 1 Corinthians 9:1–10:33 · Series: A Year in the Epistles

1 Am I Not an Apostle? Am I Not Free?

1 Corinthians 9:1–12

- Am I not an apostle? Am I not free? Have I not seen Jesus Christ our Lord? Are you not my work in the Lord?
- For as it is written in the law of Moses, you shall not muzzle an ox while it treads out the grain.
- If we've sown spiritual things for you, is it a great thing if we reap your material things?
- Nevertheless, we have not used this right, but endure all things lest we hinder the gospel of Christ.

2 A Servant to All, That I Might Win the More

1 Corinthians 9:13–23

- Even so the Lord has commanded that those who preach the gospel should live from the gospel.
- Yes, woe is me if I do not preach the gospel.
- For though I am free from all men, I have made myself a servant to all, that I might win the more.
- I have become all things to all men, that I might by all means save some.

3 Run in Such a Way That You May Obtain It

1 Corinthians 9:24–27

- Run in such a way that you may obtain it, and every one who competes for the prize is temperate in all things.
- Now they do it to obtain a perishable crown, but we for an imperishable crown.
- I discipline my body, and bring it into subjection, lest when I have preached to others I myself should become disqualified.

4 These Things Became Our Examples

1 Corinthians 10:1–13

- But with most of them God was not well pleased, for their bodies were scattered in the wilderness.
- Now these things became our examples, to the intent that we should not lust after evil things, as they also lusted.
- Now all these things happened to them as examples, and they were written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the ages have come.
- Therefore, let him who thinks he stands take heed lest he fall.
- But God is faithful, who will not allow you to be tempted beyond what you were able, but with the temptation will also make a way of escape.

5 Therefore, My Beloved, Flee From Idolatry

1 Corinthians 10:14–22

- Therefore, my beloved, flee from idolatry.
- The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ?
- For we, though many, are one bread and one body, for we all partake of that one bread.
- You cannot drink of the cup of the Lord and the cup of demons.

6 All Things Are Lawful, But Not All Things Edify

1 Corinthians 10:23–33

- All things are lawful for me, but not all things edify.
- Let no one seek his own, but each one the other's well being.
- Conscience I say, not your own, but that of the other.
- Give no offense, either to the Jews, or to the Greeks, or to the church of God.
- Not seeking my own profit, but the profit of many, that they may be saved.
