A Man Called Jesus Made Clay

Jared Rosado · John 9:1–38

INTRODUCTION

- This is one of those passages of scripture from John chapter 9 where we see it's a miracle and then he double proves it's a miracle.
- And it wouldn't have made his eyes any better, logically, unless it was a miracle.
- He puts something in their eye that naturally would cause their eye to get worse, and he makes it better.

1 Jesus Was Selective; Jesus Is Particular

John 9:3; 1 Corinthians 2:9–14

- This purpose for this miracle is so that the power of God may be revealed in him.
- I want you to know that Jesus was selective.
- But he knows you better than you know you.
- You love God, you're important. Don't let anybody tell you're not important because of your station or your place in life.
- But we have the mind of Christ.
- God selects us, not in some sort of, well, they're saved, they're lost way, but he selects those who are willing to stand up for him.

2 Jesus Is Lord of the Sabbath

John 9:14–17; Genesis 1

- It was a Sabbath day when Jesus made the clay and opened the man's eyes.
- Jesus Christ is the Lord of Lords, the King of Kings.
- People they want a relationship with Jesus, want Jesus to help them, but they fail to realize he's their Lord.
- I'm God of the Sabbath. I'm Lord of the Sabbath. I'm in charge of the Sabbath. I make clay on the Sabbath and do a miracle.
- He is Lord of the Sabbath. He's in charge of it. He made it.

3 Jesus Is a Prophet

Isaiah 42:7–8; 2 Kings 6; John 9:4–5

- It says that he came to open blind eyes to bring prisoners from the prison to those who sit in darkness.
- No prophet in the old testament healed physical blindness.
- He is a prophet, because I am convinced that he is just like the prophets of old.
- He did miracles, which many of the prophets did through the power of God, but he also gave a message.
- Jesus said, While I'm in the world, I must work the works of him who sent me, which means as a prophet, I must preach.

4 Jesus's Works Produced Bold Followers

John 9:18–23; John 9:30–33; John 9:34–38

- There comes a point in all of our faith where we must recognize our faith must be our faith.
- Whether he's a sinner or not, I don't know, but I was blind and now I can see.
- If this man were not from God, he could do nothing.
- Then he said, Lord, I believe. And he worshipped him.
- Jesus's works produced bold followers. And we need to be bold.
- His malady was washed out with Jesus, not apart from him. He obeyed and he followed.
