A Song of Moses

Jared Rosado · Deuteronomy 32

INTRODUCTION

- At the end of Moses' life, before Moses dies, at the end of his time in the wilderness, you don't get in this sermon a sense of fear.
- But you do get in this sermon a sense of reality and a sense of a reality check for his people regarding spiritual matters.
- That's why this requires us as the remnant of God's people to be extra vigilant and more dedicated workers today.

1 Let My Teaching Drop as the Rain

Deuteronomy 32:1–2

- Give ear, O heavens, and I will speak and hear, O earth the words of my mouth.
- Let the words that I as Moses speak be so refreshing, they're like raindrops in a desert land.
- Our society is dry. Our society is without God, and it needs God's word more than anything.

2 Ascribe Greatness to Our God

Deuteronomy 32:3–4

- For I proclaim the name of the Lord, ascribe greatness to our God. He doesn't say this is about Moses. He says this is about God.
- We don't have a puny God. We have a mighty God.
- He is the rock and his word is perfect. For all his ways are justice, a God of truth and without injustice, righteousness and upright is he.

3 Remember the Days of Old

Deuteronomy 32:7–8

- It's kind of like saying to every generation, remember a generation before that.
- Let history serve you and learn from her lessons.
- Ask your father, he'll show you. Ask your elders, and they will tell you.

4 The Lord's Portion Is His People

Deuteronomy 32:9

- God's people, they've always been a remnant. They've always been the smaller number.
- The Lord's portion is his people. That's his portion. You're his people.
- Society is not delving in spiritual reality.

5 You Grew Fat and Forsook God

Deuteronomy 32:15–18; John 6:48–63; Matthew 10:42

- Then he forsook God who made him and scornfully esteemed the rock of his salvation.
- They had blessings, the blessings abounded, and then they turned their back on the Lord.
- It is the spirit who gives life, the flesh profits nothing, the words that I speak to you, they are spirit and they are life.
- There's something you can do. It doesn't have to be preaching to a million people.
- Command your children to observe all this law. It is your life. By this word you shall prolong your day.

6 From I Can't Do This to Bold

Exodus 4:10

- What did Moses say in Exodus 4 10? I can't do this. No, not me.
- I've been nervous to talk to people about the gospel.
- Where once Moses thought, I can't do this, now Moses is bold and confident.
- You may be able to do a lot more than you give yourself credit for.
- What he's seeking to do for us is help us get to heaven.
