Bible Story: Isaiah

Johnny Ramsey · Isaiah 53:1–12 · Series: Bible Story

INTRODUCTION

- Let's turn now to Isaiah through Malachi and notice some outstanding things about these seventeen books.

1 Isaiah 53: History Written Before It Happened

Isaiah 53:1–12; Matthew 16:18; Hebrews 2:14–17

- Isaiah is called the Messianic prophet because of the beauty and power and splendor of Isaiah 53, history written before it happened.
- But he was wounded for our transgressions. He was bruised for our iniquities. The chastisement of our peace was upon him, and with his stripes we're healed.
- How could that verse be true? That he made his grave with the wicked, but with the rich in his death. He was hanged between thieves, but he was buried in Joseph Arimathea's new tomb.
- Though he died and was buried up from the grave he arose, the bars of death, the gates of Hades could not hold him.
- So even in death he conquered. By death, he destroyed the power of the devil over death.

2 Isaiah 2: The Prediction of Pentecost

Isaiah 1:18; Isaiah 2:1–4; Acts 2

- Come now, let us reason together, saith the Lord. Though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow.
- In Isaiah 2:1 to 4, we have the prediction of Pentecost, the kingdom of God's dear son, the house of God, the church of the living God.
- Read Acts 2 for a minute fulfillment of Isaiah 2 1 to 4.
- Eight centuries before Pentecost, the happenings on that grand and glorious occasion recorded in Acts 2 were stated.

3 A Virgin Shall Conceive and Bear a Son

Isaiah 7:14; Isaiah 9:6; Galatians 4:4

- Jehovah Himself shall give you a sign, behold, a virgin shall conceive and bear a son, and thou shalt call his name Emmanuel.
- Don't tell me the virgin birth is not predicted in the old testament.
- But this was a prediction of the virgin birth of our Lord, the one who had been from everlasting, Micah 5, would nevertheless come in the form of a baby.
- For unto us a son is born, unto us a child is given, and the government shall be upon his shoulders.

4 Isaiah 35: The Highway of Holiness

Isaiah 35; Acts 3; Isaiah 38

- It speaks of the highway of holiness, which men will not haphazardly stumble onto. You'll enter the kingdom on purpose.
- In this highway of holiness, the lame will leap as a deer.
- The man who had been lame from birth began to leap and spring about as a deer. That prophecy was fulfilled.
- In Isaiah 38, God says, I have seen your tears, I have heard your prayers.

5 Strong Statements We Need to Remember

Isaiah 57:20–21; Isaiah 55; Isaiah 59:1–2

- There is no peace, saith my God to the wicked.
- Seek ye the Lord while he may be found. Call upon him while he is near, and he will abundantly pardon.
- We cannot cause God to abdicate just because we're unfaithful.
- Isaiah 59 1 and 2 says that sin separates a man from God.

6 The Scripture Fulfilled and the New Name

Luke 4; Isaiah 62:1–2; Acts 11:26

- This day hath that scripture been fulfilled in your ears. In other words, he said, I am the promised Messiah.
- God Almighty promised that once the Gentiles received his righteousness, then he would give to his people a new name.
- They were called Christians. That was the new name God promised to give.
