Comparison: Jesus vs. Mohammed

Phillip Mullins · Series: A Christian's Guide To Islam

INTRODUCTION

- Jesus made it very clear that the only way to be right with God, to find salvation, to have hope of life was through Him.
- Thus, Islam is likewise claiming to teach an exclusive way. Which means they can't both be right.
- As we compare tonight, Jesus and Mohammed, I want you to consider with me, first of all, their place as prophets, and second of all, what they started, their movements.

1 Their Place as Prophets

Acts 2:22; 1 John 4

- If I do not do the works of my Father, do not believe me.
- Jesus of Nazareth, a man attested by God to you by miracles, wonders, and signs, which God did through him in your midst.
- Jesus did not do these things in a corner. Jesus did these things openly.
- The Quran, according to Muslim teaching, was the sign that Muhammad was God's prophet.
- One says, look at my public deeds and make a judgment. The other one says, trust what I say and believe what I'm teaching that I got from God in a private setting.
- Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits, whether they are of God.

2 What They Started: The Nature of the Movements

- What's the nature of the movement that Jesus began, and what's the nature of the movement that Muhammad began.
- Is it physical and earthly in nature, or is it spiritual?
- Islam in its precise sense is a social order, a philosophy of life, a system of economic principles, and a rule of government.
- Jihad is the struggle every believer has to submit to the will of God.
- Jihad can mean the battle against evil on the outside. Which also can mean an actual physical fight.
- If the Quran teaches that Muslims are to kill all non Muslims, then Muslims have done a very poor job at that.
