Feminine Christianity

Ken Chapman · Genesis 5:1–2

INTRODUCTION

- The goal of these lessons has been to look more broadly or generally at the roles of men and women.
- Our society has thrust that need upon us that we emphasize the differences as God has laid them out.

1 God Made Male and Female

Genesis 5:1–2; Matthew 19:4

- Two points need to be made about God. Number one is He does nothing by accident.
- And secondly, whatever he does has ramifications.
- He created them, male and female, and blessed them.
- Have you not read that he who made them at the beginning made them male and female?

2 Men and Women Are Different

- Men women are different. They're different physically. They're different biologically.
- That's a biblical foundational point, but it's one that true science backs up.
- Scientists have found that at the earliest of ages that there is a difference.

3 Do Not Be Conformed to This World

Romans 12:1–2

- Do not be conformed to this world, but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that you may prove what is good and acceptable and perfect will of God.
- The child of God will submit his and her body and mind to the will of God.
- To the child of God all we need is a scripture that says, here's how God made you.
- If we're honest with ourselves, it goes against our own innate nature.

4 Foundational to the Family and Society

Genesis 5:1–2; Matthew 19:3–4

- The idea of God making men and women and making them different and doing so for a specific purpose, is foundational.
- It is foundational to the family unit and therefore to society as a whole.
- This concept is the foundation of everything God intended for the family and for society.

5 Embrace Who You Are

Genesis 2:18

- Embrace who you are. And in so doing, embrace the beautiful role that God has for you.
- It is not good that man shall be alone. I will make a helper comparable to him.

- You're special. You are unique. You were made for a God designed purpose. Why would you want to be anything else?
- God did not make you a second class citizen. God did not make man a first class citizen.

6 Christian Women Are Descendants of Sarah

Galatians 4:30–31; 1 Peter 3:1–6; Hebrews 11:11–12

- Christian women are not only descendants of Eve. Christian women are descendants of Sarah.
- Sarah in the New Testament is set before you as a role model of faith and godly womanhood.
- The incorruptible beauty of a gentle and quiet spirit, which is very precious in the sight of God.
- Submission has nothing to do with inferiority or superiority.
- Sometimes you, like Sarah, are going to fail. But ultimately, in faith, you're going to submit to the will of God.

> THE CHALLENGE
> May God help us to conform ourselves not to this world and its ever-changing standards, but to conform ourselves to the pattern and the will of God.
