How Will We Serve the Lord Together

Jared Rosado · Joshua 24:15

INTRODUCTION

- I would make a comment at the beginning of our lesson that our Bible should be lived.
- As for me and my house, we will serve the Lord.
- Together in serving is the theme I want to speak on this morning.

1 In Our Family's Reading

Proverbs 5:1–8; Proverbs 4:23; Proverbs 27:23–27

- Timothy had the wisdom that his mother and grandmother had taught him.
- Keep your heart with all diligence, for out of it spring the issues of life.
- Perhaps we need to decide in our reading the importance of reading passages of scripture that apply to knowing things about life.
- Be diligent to know the state of thy flocks, and attend to your herds.
- We need to read this passage not to our college age kids, but to our middle school and elementary school kids so that they know when you get older, save.
- If you want to do something for your family, just do something. Make a decision as to what you'll read and then do it.

2 In Our Family's Prayer

Acts 21:7–14; 1 Corinthians 13:9–13

- We need to serve the Lord in our family's prayer.
- And in Philip's service, he was a family man whose daughters were also able to prophesy.
- We know in part and we prophesy in part.
- But when that which is complete or mature or perfect is come, that would be the Bible.
- Philip has worked diligently to teach his daughters what is right and what is true.
- Caesarea was the home of one of the seven, and the children were active in prayer and had the ability to prophesy.

3 In Our Family's Outreach

Acts 18:18

- Aquila and Priscilla greet you heartily in the Lord. With the church that's in their house.
- What mattered to them is that they were faithful, they served the Lord, and they cared about their brethren at large.
- Don't let that bother you. Let that put you into high gear to reach out for the Lord.
- It's not small business, it's the Lord's business, and never is the Lord's business small business.
- Then he took leave of the brethren and sailed for Syria, and Priscilla and Aquila were with him.

- Aquila and Priscilla got together outside of worship time to be with Paul.
