Isaiah 10-12

Robert Harkrider · Isaiah 10:1–12:6 · Series: Bible Class - Isaiah

INTRODUCTION

- His first and primary mission, like most prophets, was to speak to the people of his day.
- Ahaz stands as a real representation of one who did not trust in the Holy One of Israel.
- Hezekiah, against all odds, trusted in the Holy One of Israel, and Jerusalem was spared.

1 His Hand Is Stretched Out Still

Isaiah 10:1–4

- There were unrighteous judges and unrighteous lawyers who out of their own greed took advantage of the poor.
- For all this, his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.
- Your sin is such that this may not be all there is.
- What will you do in the day of punishment and in the desolations which will come from afar?

2 Woe to Assyria, the Rod of My Anger

Isaiah 10:5–6; Isaiah 10:12; Isaiah 10:15

- Woe to Assyria. The rod of my anger, and the staff in whose hand is my indignation.
- How many really stop and give credit that God is the one whose guiding hand?
- Shall the axe boast itself against him who chops with it? Shall the saw exalt itself against him who saws with it?
- They're all useful, but only when someone else is really using them.

3 There's Hope for the Remnant

Isaiah 10:20–22; Romans 9:27–28; Romans 11:5

- The remnant of Israel and such as have escaped of the house of Jacob will never again depend on him who defeated them, but will depend on the Lord.
- Shearjeshu, which meant the remnant shall return.
- Even so then at this present time, there is a remnant according to the election of grace.

4 A Rod From the Stem of Jesse

Isaiah 11:1–2; Jeremiah 23:5; John 17:4

- There shall come forth a rod from the stem of Jesse. A branch shall grow out of its roots.
- It was predicted that Jesus would be of the lineage of David.
- Jesus came to seek and to save the lost, and what he did on earth fulfilled the mission that he came for.

5 The Wolf Shall Dwell With the Lamb

Isaiah 11:6–10; Hebrews 12:22–28; Romans 15:12

- The wolf shall dwell with the lamb, the leopard shall lie down with the young goat.
- Where we'll be in the Lord's church, and then when we'll be during the period of the church age.
- There's a sense in which even what has seemingly been enemies now can dwell together. The Gentiles and the Jews.
- If you believe Jesus to be the Son of God, we're made one in the family of God, and that brings about therefore peace.

6 The Second Time to Recover the Remnant

Isaiah 11:11; Isaiah 12:2

- The Lord shall set his hand again the second time to recover the remnant of his people.
- In the time of the Messiah, God's people are recovered, not just in a physical way, but in a spiritual way.
- Where is the promise of a third recovery? See, there's the question that every premillennialist has to answer.
- Behold, God is my salvation. I will trust and not be afraid.
