Isaiah 33-35

Robert Harkrider · Series: Bible Class - Isaiah

INTRODUCTION

- The theme of Isaiah is trust in the Holy One. Trusting the Holy One of Israel.
- He trusted in the Lord God of Israel, so that after him was none like him among all the kings of Judah.

1 Woe to You Who Plunder

Isaiah 10:5–15

- Woe to you who plunder, though you have not been plundered, and you who deal treacherously, though they have not dealt treacherously with you.
- When you cease plundering, you will be plundered. When you make an end of dealing treacherously, they will deal treacherously with you.
- Woe to Assyria, the rod of my anger, the staff in whose hand is my indignation.
- Shall the axe boast itself against him who chops with it? Shall the saw exalt itself against him who saws with it.

2 Be Our Arm Every Morning, O Lord

- O Lord, be gracious to us. We waited for you. Be our arm every morning.
- I will rise, says the Lord. Now I will be exalted. Now I will lift myself up.
- In prosperous times, I think it's easy for you and me to say I trust in the Lord.
- So Assyria was brought down by whose power? God's power.

3 Who Shall Dwell With Everlasting Burnings?

Revelation 6:17

- Fearfulness has seized the hypocrites. Who among us shall dwell with the devouring fire? Who among us shall dwell with everlasting burnings?
- Now, those who trust in the Lord don't fear, they're thankful. The hypocrites fear.
- He who walks righteously, speaks uprightly. He who despises the gain of oppressions, who gestures with his hands refusing bribes.
- Throughout the history of God's people throughout the Bible, always the righteous stood, and the wicked failed.

4 Your Eyes Will See the King in His Beauty

Hebrews 12:22–28

- Your eyes will see the king and his beauty.
- Your eyes will see Jerusalem a quiet home, a tabernacle that will not be taken down.
- For the Lord is our judge, the Lord is our lawgiver. The Lord is our king, he will save us.

- Since we are receiving a kingdom which cannot be shaken, let us have grace by which we may serve God acceptably with reverence and godly fear.

5 The Indignation of the Lord Against Edom

Isaiah 34:2–17; Obadiah 1:3–15; Malachi 1:3

- The indignation of the Lord is against all nations. His fury against all their armies.
- Edom sort of stands as the example for all nations.
- When they really stood up against God's people, in essence, who are they really standing against? God. And so God would bring them down.
- Search from the book of the Lord and read. Not one of these shall fail.

6 The Desert Shall Rejoice; the Highway of Holiness

Hebrews 12:12–13; Matthew 11:2–6

- The desert shall rejoice and blossom as the rose.
- Strengthen the weak hands. Make firm the feeble knees. Say to those who are fear-hearted, be strong. Do not fear.
- It should be called the highway of holiness. The unclean shall not pass over it.
- God hasn't made it a way that's impossible, but it is a way of choice.

THE CHALLENGE

Trust in the Holy One of Israel. May we do that our day in our day as well.
