Isaiah 7-9

Robert Harkrider · Isaiah 7 · Series: Bible Class - Isaiah

INTRODUCTION

- In this section, we have about three or four really prophecies that are quoted and applied even in the Messianic period or the New Testament period.
- While he spoke to the people of his day, what I hope you gather from Isaiah is people haven't changed that much.

1 Do You Trust in the Lord or Not?

Isaiah 7:1–9; 2 Kings 16; 2 Chronicles 28

- It came to pass in the days of Ahaz, that Rezin, king of Syria, and Pikah the son of Rimaliah, king of Israel, went up to Jerusalem to make war against it, but could not prevail against it.
- On the front of your book, I put trust in the Holy One of Israel.
- Do you trust in the Lord or not trust in the Lord?
- Take heed and be quiet. Do not fear or be faint hearted.

2 The Virgin Shall Conceive and Bear a Son

Isaiah 7:10–17; Matthew 1

- But Ahaz said, I'll not ask, nor will I test the Lord.
- Therefore, the Lord Himself will give you a sign, behold, the virgin shall conceive and bear a son, and shall call his name Emmanuel.
- God preserved his people, even in the time of an unfaithful king, an unfaithful Ahaz.
- There'll be a time in which Ahaz's unbelief in the Lord brought distress upon the people of Judah.

3 Not Walk in the Way of This People

2 Timothy 4

- The Lord spoke thus to me with a strong hand, and instructed me that I should not walk in the way of this people.
- The Lord of hosts, him you shall hallow. Let him be your fear, let him be your dread.
- Isaiah wasn't a traitor. He might have been called a troublemaker, but he was not the troublemaker.
- Throughout the history of the church, those who have sought to call the church back away from man made programs have been treated as troublemakers, but they aren't either.

4 A Stone of Stumbling and a Rock of Offense

1 Peter 2:6–8; Romans 9:33

- The stone which the builders rejected has become the chief cornerstone, and a stone of stumbling and a rock of offense.

- He's the chief cornerstone. And we have confidence in him. We build by faith on him.
- But to those who rejected Jesus, those who crucified him, what was he? He was the very stone on which they stumbled.

5 For Unto Us a Child Is Born

Matthew 4:13–16; Colossians 2:3

- The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light, and those who dwelt in the land of the shadow of death, upon them a light has shined.
- It is quoted in Matthew chapter 4, in verses 13 through 16, when it describes at the time when Jesus left Nazareth and moved to Capernaum.
- For unto us a child is born. Unto us a son is given. The government will be upon his shoulder, and his name will be called wonderful, counselor, mighty God, everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.
- The mighty God, he possessed the characteristics of deity and indeed performed the works ascribed to only what God could do.

6 Know to Refuse the Evil and Choose the Good

Isaiah 7:15–16

- My child wants to be baptized. Is my child old enough? It's a hard question to answer.
- At what point does a child reach that age and or stage of life when they do not just simply look to their parent for right and wrong, but they also begin to comprehend something about God in their life.
- When they know to what is evil in God's sight and to refuse it, and to seek what is good in God's sight, not just mother and dad's sight.
