Light the Fire!

Wilson Adams · Exodus 3:1–14

INTRODUCTION

- Boredom is not defined by a lack of busyness. Boredom is defined by a lack of mission.
- If you're bored with life, you need something that no Netflix series is going to fix. Because what you need is a mission. What you need is a life purpose.
- When God created you, he didn't just create you on purpose, he created you for purpose.

1 Fire Is Dangerous and Attractive, So Is God's Holiness

Exodus 3:2–5

- Like fire is both dangerous and attractive, so is God's holiness.
- What Moses did lack was mission.
- God is a set-apart kind of holy, which is the definition of holy.
- The combination of God's holy fire and your sin will kill you.
- If God is boring you, then you haven't come face to face with the fire of his holiness.
- When you remake God in your image, God always gets smaller. And you always get bigger.

2 Fire Is Intimate, So Is the Love of God

Exodus 3:7–8; 2 Corinthians 5:21

- Like fire is intimate, so is the love of God.
- God's not going to turn down the heat of his holiness to accommodate you or me.
- Instead of changing him, he changes me. Because he loves me. And he has made a way for me to come to him without getting burned.
- The only way you can come to the fire of God's holiness and not get burned is through him.
- He walked into the fire for us. He died on the cross for us.
- When you let Him purify you, when you let Him forgive you, then He sets you on fire. And when that happens, you become the bush that doesn't burn up.

3 Fire Fuels Motion, So Is the Power of God

Exodus 3:16; Luke 24:32; Acts 2:3–4

- Just like fire fuels motion, so is the power of God.
- Moses is like a lot of us. He's kind of running on empty. Until God filled his tank and gave him a mission and gave him a purpose.
- Nothing explodes without being lit. God lit Moses up. And he'll light you up.
- Were not our hearts burning within us? When he explained those scriptures.
- God doesn't say come sit. God says go.
- We huddle up to do exactly what the Lord told the apostles to do. Go.

THE CHALLENGE

Life is short. It's real short. What are you doing to make a difference with the life that you have?
