Psalms 27-30 (Week 10)

Ken Chapman · Series: A Year in the Psalms

1 The Lord Is My Light and My Salvation

- The Lord is my light and my salvation. Whom shall I fear? The Lord is the strength of my life. Of whom shall I be afraid?
- Wait on the Lord, be of good courage, and he shall strengthen your heart.
- Can you say with David the Psalmist that God is your rock, and therefore you have no fear.
- What a wonderful thought to know that though everyone else may forsake us, and though everything else may go wrong in this life, that God will take care of me.

2 To You I Will Cry, O Lord, My Rock

- To you I will cry, O Lord, my rock. Do not be silent to me.
- It may be a good idea to pray this prayer with David.
- But don't forget that when God does answer your prayer, to praise him in the way that David did.
- But remember to trust in God and to go to Him in prayer as David did, with your concerns and with your faith.

3 The Voice of the Lord Is Powerful

Psalm 29:2; Psalm 29:4; Psalm 29:11

- Give unto the Lord the glory due to his name. Worship the Lord in beauty of holiness.
- The voice of the Lord is powerful. The voice of the Lord is full of majesty.
- May we never forget the power of our almighty God, the power of his voice alone, the voice that spoke, and all of creation came into existence.
- This God who splits the forest, who thunders, who shakes the wilderness, who strips the forest bare is the same God who will give strength to his people and will bless his people with peace.

4 Joy Comes in the Morning

- I will extol you, O Lord, for you have lifted me up, and have not let my foes rejoice over me.
- For his anger is but for a moment, his favor is for life. Weeping may endure for a night, but joy comes in the morning.
- You have turned for me my mourning into dancing.
- This psalm gives us assurance that no matter what we may be going through, whether it be physical or spiritual problems, that there is hope in the Lord.
