Questions & Answers

Tommy Peeler · Luke 24:25–27 · Series: Pointing To Jesus

INTRODUCTION

- I was given before this meeting five questions to deal with in this period and tomorrow.
- Please explain dual prophecies. What do we mean by that?

1 All the Scriptures Point to Him

Luke 24:25–27; Luke 24:44; John 5:39–46

- Then beginning with Moses and with all the prophets, he explained to them the things concerning himself in all the scriptures.
- Jesus emphasizes in all of these passages that all the scriptures point to him.
- There are some ways the New Testament uses the Old Testament that I never would have dreamed of had it not been said.
- They drank of that rock which followed them, which rock was Christ.

2 Dual Prophecy: Fulfilled in Solomon, Greatest in Jesus

1 Chronicles 17:11–14; 1 Chronicles 22:6–10; Hebrews 1:5

- Dual indicates two, more than one. The idea is there's more than one fulfillment of these passages.
- He shall build for me a house, and I will establish his throne forever. I will be his father, and he will be my son.
- The greatest fulfillment of these words was not in God being a father to Solomon, but God's unique relationship with Jesus.
- The kings of Israel did not exhaust the meaning of those psalms. Those psalms had a fuller and deeper and richer fulfillment in Jesus.

3 Egypt Type of Bondage, the Exodus Type of Salvation

Deuteronomy 28:68; Hosea 7:16; Jeremiah 23:7–8

- I know this is a valid method of looking at the Old Testament. The reason I can say that is because the Old Testament itself uses it.
- Egypt in the Bible becomes a type of slavery and bondage.
- The real Egypt, the real place of bondage is Assyria.
- He is using the imagery of the Exodus. How God provided for Israel in the wilderness. And he's saying, I'm going to do it again.
- What God has done in the past becomes a type of salvation in the future.

4 His Exodus Delivers Us From Sin

Luke 9:31; Revelation 15:3–4

- They talked about his departure, which he was about to accomplish at Jerusalem. They talk about his exodus.
- That is a picture of something worse. That is a picture of people who are slaves to sin.
- Jesus' death on the cross delivers us from a deeper oppression, from a greater problem. He delivers us from the problem of sin.
- The stories of the Old Testament, we shouldn't be surprised when we see Jesus doing similar things.

5 Ecclesiastes Raises Questions Only Jesus Can Answer

Ecclesiastes 4:1–3; John 11:25; 1 Corinthians 15:58

- There are direct prophecies. There are hints and foreshadowings of Jesus. There are types of Jesus, there are dual fulfillments.
- If we're all going to die, and we're all going to be forgotten, as Ecclesiastes tells us, what is the use of any of it?
- The fact that Jesus is the resurrection and the life, as John 11, verse 25 tells us, shows us that Jesus answers the questions that Ecclesiastes raises.
- Because there is a resurrection, nothing we do is in vain.

6 Song of Solomon: Any Real Love Reflects His Love

- I believe it describes the love of a man and a woman.
- Isn't any real ultimate love in this world a reflection of God's love?
- If you know that by experience, isn't that a picture of his greater love?
