Remember Lot's Wife

Ken Chapman · Luke 17:26–32

INTRODUCTION

- The scriptures are full of reminders for us to remember.
- When thinking of judgment, remember Lot's wife.
- Remember the judgment that is coming, remember not to look back.

1 Remember the Certainty of Judgment

Psalm 50:21; 2 Peter 3:3–5

- We must remember the certainty of judgment.
- As God has done before, he will do finally again, God will bring judgment.
- It's so easy for us to forget the horrible judgment that is coming upon this unrighteous and ungodly world because right now the sun is shining.
- Scoffers will come in the last days according to their own lust, and saying, where is the promise of his coming?
- Although the sun is shining, judgment is coming.
- Remember God has not forgotten his promises.

2 The Danger of Becoming Too Attached to This World

Hebrews 12:1; Genesis 19:16

- We need to remember the extreme danger of becoming too attached to this world and the things of this world.
- All she did was look back. But that was an indication of where her heart was.
- Let us lay aside every weight and the sin that so easily ensnares us, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us.
- If it's allowed to, the world will grab onto you and choke out every bit of spirituality in your life.
- There was something in that ungodly, unrighteous, wicked city that had a hold on them. And we need to remember that danger.

3 Keep Looking and Moving Forward

Genesis 19:16; Colossians 1:9–14

- Let's remember to keep looking and moving forward.
- God was saving Lot and his family from the wickedness in that city.
- Noah was not just saved from the flood, he was saved by the judgment of the flood.
- He has delivered us from the power of darkness and conveyed us into the kingdom of the Son of His love, in whom we have redemption through his blood.

- Forgetting those things which are behind and pressing forward to the mark of the call of God in Christ Jesus.
