Romans 11-12

Gene Shoaf · Romans 11:1–12:21 · Series: A Year in the Epistles

INTRODUCTION

- I'll be reading from Romans 11 and chapter 12 from the American Standard Version.

1 God Has Not Rejected His People

Romans 11:1–10

- God has not rejected his people, whom he foreknew.
- There has also come to be at the same present time a remnant according to God's gracious choice.
- But if it is by grace, it is no longer on the basis of works. Otherwise, grace is no longer grace.

2 The Root Supports You

Romans 11:11–24

- Do not be arrogant toward the branches.
- Remember that it is not you who supports the root, but the root supports you.
- They were broken off for their unbelief, and you stand only by your faith. Do not be conceited, but fear.
- Behold, then the kindness and severity of God.
- If you continue in his kindness, otherwise you will be cut off.

3 The Depth of His Riches

Romans 11:25–36

- A partial hardening has happened to Israel until the fullness of the Gentiles has come in.
- For the gifts and the calling of God are irrevocable.
- For God has shut up all in his disobedience, that he might show mercy to all.
- How unsearchable are his judgments, and unfathomable his ways.
- For from him and through him and to him are all things. To him be the glory forever, amen.

4 Present Your Bodies a Living Sacrifice

Romans 12:1–2

- I urge you, therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies a living and holy sacrifice, acceptable to God, which is your spiritual service of worship.
- Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind,.
- That you may prove what is the will of God, and which is good and acceptable and perfect.

5 Many Members in One Body

Romans 12:3–8

- Not to think more highly of himself than he ought to think.
- As we who are many are one body in Christ and individually members of one another.
- Since we have gifts that differ according to the grace given to us, let each exercise them accordingly.

6 Overcome Evil With Good

Romans 12:9–21

- By being devoted to one another in brotherly love, give preference to one another in honor.
- Bless those who persecute you, bless and curse not.
- If possible, so far as it depends on you, be at peace with all men.
- Never take your own revenge, beloved, but leave room for the wrath of God.
- Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.
