Romans 7-8

Ken Chapman · Romans 7:1–8:39 · Series: A Year in the Epistles

1 Dead to the Law Through the Body of Christ

Romans 7:1–6

- If her husband dies, she is free from that law, so that she is no adulteress, though she has married another man.
- You also have become dead to the law through the body of Christ, that you may be married to another, even to him who was raised from the dead, that we should bear fruit to God.
- But now we have been delivered from the law, having died to what we were held by, so that we should serve in the newness of the spirit, and not in the oldness of the letter.

2 Is the Law Sin? Certainly Not

Romans 7:7–13

- Is the law sin? Certainly not. On the contrary, I would not have known sin except through the law.
- For sin, taking occasion by the commandment, deceived me and by it killed me.
- Therefore the law is holy, and the commandment holy and just and good.
- So that sin through the commandment might become exceedingly sinful.

3 Not I Who Do It, but Sin Dwells in Me

Romans 7:14–25

- For what I will to do, that I do not practice, but what I hate that I do.
- For I delight in the law of God, according to the inward man. But I see another law in my members, warring against the law of my mind.
- O wretched man that I am, who will deliver me from this body of death? I thank God through Jesus Christ our Lord.

4 Now No Condemnation to Those in Christ Jesus

Romans 8:1–17

- There is, therefore, now no condemnation to those who are in Christ Jesus, who do not walk according to the flesh, but according to the Spirit.
- For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus, has made me free from the law of sin and death.
- For to be carnally minded is death, but to be spiritually minded is life and peace.
- For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, these are sons of God.
- If children, then heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ, if indeed we suffer with Him, that we may also be glorified together.

5 Sufferings Not Worthy to Be Compared With the Glory

Romans 8:18–30

- For I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us.
- The creation itself also will be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God.
- The Spirit Himself makes intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered.
- We know that all things work together for good to those who love God, to those who are called according to his purpose.

6 If God Is for Us, Who Can Be Against Us?

Romans 8:31–39

- If God is for us, who can be against us?
- He who did not spare his own son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things?
- Yet in all things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us.
- Neither death nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.
