Satan Attacks The Family

Ken Chapman · Ephesians 6:10–18

INTRODUCTION

- I hope we've learned what's most important.
- There is someone else who believes that the family is the foundation to our society.
- And that someone is Satan. He knows those facts. And because he knows those facts, Satan attacks our families.

1 Satan Is That Roaring Lion, Seeking Whom He May Devour

Ephesians 6:10–18

- It is nonetheless a battle, a war for the very possession of our souls. And we better prepare ourselves for that battle.
- Put on the whole armor of God that you may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil.
- We do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this age, against the spiritual host of wickedness in the heavenly places.
- The good news is you're not engaged in this warfare alone.
- The lesson of David and Goliath is that with God, we can defeat giants.
- It's a battle that we're doomed to lose unless we take up the armor of God to protect our families.

2 Satan Attacks Our Families With Lies

John 8:44; 1 Corinthians 6:9–10; Matthew 19:6

- Lie number one is just live together. That living together outside of marriage is not just okay, but is to be preferred.
- Another lie that Satan tells is in marriage, if it doesn't work out, we'll just get a divorce. That's a lie from the father of lies.
- The lie has been fathers and husbands. You don't have to be the spiritual leaders of your family.
- Another lie that's been told is that children don't need discipline.
- The lie that Satan is telling is that the home doesn't need to be the training ground for spiritual wisdom.
- That your family is going to be happy and fulfilled if their schedule is full of secular activities.
