Psalm 90 – Time.. The Stuff Life's made of...

Jared Rosado · Psalm 90:1–12

INTRODUCTION

- Time on earth is temporary. Practice gratitude daily. Make every moment count.
- Psalm chapter 90 tells us the reality is that we all should learn how to number our days.
- We've got to be the type of people that recognize we have to capitalize on every moment of time we have.

1 Life Is Short; None Know Their Last Earth Day

James 4:13–17

- For what is your life? It is even a vapor.
- Instead you ought to say, 'If the Lord wills, we shall live and do this or that.'
- Life is short. None of us know our last day on Earth.
- You'd rather the Lord to come back and hear you singing wherever you are than for the Lord to come back and see you drinking wherever you are.

2 This Is the Day the Lord Has Made

Psalm 118:22–24

- This is the day the Lord has made.
- Every day should be a day that we say, "This is a day of Thanksgiving. This is a day the Lord has blessed us with. Let us rejoice and be glad."
- Yesterday is history, tomorrow is a mystery, today is a gift. That is why we call it the present.
- The old time psalmist way back in Psalm 118 connected the day to rejoice with Jesus before Jesus was ever there.

3 Our Words Are Important

- Our words mean something. Our words are important. The way we say things really does matter.
- The way you use your words can either construct, build someone up, make them feel good, encourage, be uplifting, be kind and nice and friendly.
- May the words of the utterance be given to me that I may be able to speak boldly as I ought.

4 Neither Overly Gloomy Nor Overly Giddy

Romans 1:16

- Let our today be neither gloomy, overly gloomy, and let not today be overly giddy.
- We need to be positive. We need to have a good attitude, but we also need to stand firm for those things which are doctrinally true.
- The individual is the one that is of a branch, and Jesus is the vine.
- The delivery that we give forth the message of God is so vital.

5 See That You Walk Circumspectly, Redeeming the Time

Ephesians 5:15–16; Hebrews 12:28–29

- We as individuals and as families serving God must choose wisely in every moment what we're going to do with our time.
- See that you walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise redeeming the time because the days are evil.
- Wisdom is not just knowledge. Wisdom is knowing what to do with what you know.
- The regular moments are when it really matters to consolidate the teachings of the Lord to the next generation.

6 Be Still and Know That I Am God

Psalm 46:1–10

- God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble.
- Be still and know that I am God.
- God has told us through his scriptures there are sometimes just to pause, take a moment, breathe, and be still. And know that God's got it.
