What I Want To Teach My Daughters

Walcott Steele

INTRODUCTION

- Could you follow up with a lesson on what you want to teach your daughters?
- With the four times that we were expecting, I always wish for a son.

1 Created in the Image of God to Glorify Him

- First I would want them to know that they were created in the image of God, and they were created to glorify him.
- I would want them secondly to seek him, seek the things of the kingdom, and start as young as they possibly can.
- There's nothing more important than pleasing God, developing a relationship with Him through Jesus Christ.
- Everything else in their life will be weighed or everything else will hang on that.

2 Their Bodies Are Members of Christ

1 Peter 3:3–4; Proverbs 31:30

- As they grow up, I would want them to remember that their bodies are members of Christ.
- The hidden person of the heart with the imperishable beauty of a gentle and quiet spirit, which in God's sight is very precious.
- You would want to teach your daughters, or I would, to dress modestly, cover themselves.
- Charm is deceitful, beauty is vain, but a woman who fears the Lord is to be praised.

3 Dating With Marriage in Mind

Proverbs 3:5–6

- I would want them to anyway to do it with marriage in mind.
- To trust the Lord. As he says, with all your heart, lean not into your own understanding. In all your ways acknowledge him.
- Anyone who thinks he stands, let him take heed lest he fall.
- We often have to remind our daughters not to think that they have everything under control, but take heed.

4 Looking for a Young Man Who Loves God

Ephesians 5:25; 1 Peter 3:7; 1 Peter 3:1

- To be looking for a young man who loves God more than he loves them.
- One who will obey Christ to love them as he loved the church and gave himself for the church.
- One who would nourish and cherish them as Christ does for the church.

- Having to submit doesn't make one inferior.
- Trained to love their husbands and children, to be self-controlled, pure, working at home, kind and submissive to their husbands.

5 Strong Women Like We Read About

Luke 8:1–3; Acts 16:14; Proverbs 31

- I would want to teach my daughters to be strong women like we read about in the Word of God.
- The Lord opened her heart and she paid attention to what was said by Paul.
- When you think of Proverbs 31 and the description of that woman, that's a strong woman, a hard working woman.
- Whatever they will choose to do in life, the most important thing is to be pleasing to God.

6 We Make It Our Aim to Please Him

2 Corinthians 5:6–10

- We walk by faith and not by sight.
- Whether we are at home or away, we make it our aim to please him.
- We must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each one may receive what is due for what he has done in his body, whether good or evil.

> THE CHALLENGE
>
> So tonight I would ask, are you in a relationship with him? Are you in a relationship with God?

MY NOTES