Who Do You Trust?

Greg Kline · Numbers 13:1–14:25

INTRODUCTION

- In Exodus chapter 1, you see that the promise to Abraham of a great nation being made of him is finally being fulfilled.
- Yes, he was promised a great nation, but he was also promised a great land.
- But if you have the Lord, all things are possible, all things will come to pass if God has promised them to be so.

1 Submit to the Lord Even When I Don't Understand

Numbers 13:30–33; 2 Kings 5:1–14; Numbers 14:6–9

- Send men to spy out the land of Canaan, which I am giving to the people of Israel.
- The rub comes not in doing checklist items. The rub comes in doing what God says, even when I don't understand why he has asked me to.
- Go and wash in the Jordan seven times, and your flesh shall be restored, and you shall be clean.
- The power of the cleansing was through God's power.
- If the Lord delights in us, he will bring us into this land and give it to us, a land that flows with milk and honey.
- If we trust in what God has promised us, we will be provided for.

2 Will I Trust in Him Even When Things Are Difficult?

Psalm 9:9; Psalm 46:1; Psalm 118:8

- The Lord is a stronghold for the oppressed, a stronghold in times of trouble.
- God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble.
- It is better to take refuge in the Lord than to trust in man.
- It never was about man versus man, was it? It was about God's plan of deliverance.
- We have to bow down and trust his will always, when times are good and when times are bad.
- Our understanding is limited and flawed, but God's is perfect in understanding.

THE CHALLENGE

Will we live out that purchase? Or are we going to turn back and be slaves of sin?
