Why Do You Call Me Lord Lord?

Joseph Casimier · Luke 6:46 · Series: Questions about Faith & God

INTRODUCTION

- The word Lord means ruler, it means sovereign.
- So for now, Jesus has all authority.
- But in this question, Jesus says, it's inconsistent for you to call me Lord and not do that what I say.

1 The Things I Say Regarding My Word

Genesis 1:26–27; Matthew 19

- First of all, I want us to recognize that the word of God reveals to us the truth about creation.
- God's word tells us that it is a union that is sanctified by God between two individuals, one being a male, the other one being a female.
- The questions that we have can be answered by reading in God's word.
- God's word speaks to us directly that life comes from God.
- The Word of God ought to be the Christian's guide in his life.
- I need to be a daily Bible reader. I need to know what's inside this book. I need to study it. And not only do I need to study it, I need to apply it.

2 The Things I Say Regarding My Work

Ephesians 2; Mark 13:34; 1 Timothy 5:3–16

- If the Lord has work to do, then you and I have work to do as well.
- No, we don't work or earn our way into heaven, but there are works that we must do.
- Because we are his workmanship created in Christ Jesus for good works.
- Those who follow Jesus must understand that strict obedience to God is in fact essential. What that means, folks, is that we need to do God's work in God's way.
- If any believing man or woman has widows, let them relieve them and do not let the church be burdened that it may relieve those who are really widows.
- If you've identified with this church, the second question is what are you doing?

3 The Things I Say Regarding My Worship

John 4; 1 Corinthians 10:16; Acts 20:7

- Regarding worship, we understand that worship must be in spirit and in truth.
- The point of that is that worship can be vain. We could offer something to God and God doesn't accept it.
- Number one, God should be worshiped, and only God. And God is to be worshiped in the way in which He has directed us.

- For us to offer worship to God that is acceptable, we must go to God's word so we can know what is acceptable to God.
- If Jesus is Lord, I must recognize what the Lord tells me to do if I am to offer worship to him.
- On the first day of the week, the disciples came together to break bread.
